

Conor Anderson

Conor Anderson is a strategic governance and leadership development associate who supports the team with a broad range of tasks spanning the full length of client engagements. He has worked with a representative list of NC's corporate and non-profit clients to provide administrative and logistical support, research, data collection/analysis and client deliverables.

Conor joined Nygren Consulting in 2009 after completing his undergraduate studies at UC Berkeley, from which he received a dual bachelors degree in economics and psychology. He is currently an MBA candidate at that university's prestigious Haas School of Business.

Education

Haas School of Business

MBA Candidate

University of California, Berkeley BA in Economics and Psychology